

INITIATE LARGE CLASS INTO SONS OF AMERICA

President Gabriel H. Moyer and Other National Officers Attend Ceremony Here Last Night.

In the presence of National President Gabriel H. Moyer, of Lebanon, Pa., his immediate colleagues, National and State officers, and surrounded by a guard of several hundred members of the Richmond lodge, a class of 400 was initiated into the Patriotic Order Sons of America, in the Eagles' Home, Third and Marshall Streets, last night.

Mayor Ainslie, in welcoming the national officers to the city, stated that he took particular pleasure in extending them the freedom of the city, identified them with an order so full of patriotism and a rich in heritage. Mr. Moyer, in a brief address preliminary to the initiation, emphasized the importance of holding aloft the principles for which the order stands in these days of unrest and trying issues facing the country. We represent a body of more than ordinary importance," he said, "and take great pride in being present on an occasion such as this, when so many additional men are to swear allegiance to the principles for which we stand." He stated that to be a good citizen, they must firmly believe in the United States of America and their 10,000 colleagues. In closing he paid a high tribute to Virginia, stating that it was part of the greatest country on earth.

Other national officers who attended the meeting were: J. W. Patten, Washington, national vice-president; John W. Reese, St. Clair, Pa., national treasurer; and Herman Miller, Easton, Pa., national secretary.

The officers had as their host previous to the meeting J. W. Benner, of Camp No. 32, who took the visiting delegation on an excursion down the James River. The body will hold their annual camp in Portsmouth August 9 and 10. The class initiation marks the culmination of a membership drive started early in the year by Camp No. 32. The class was initiated by Camp No. 32, E. E. Adams, State secretary, presided.

MACLEOD-CARPER NUPTIALS CELEBRATED AT BOYCE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WINCHESTER, VA., July 9.—A wedding of interest to society in Virginia was that of Captain Charles Campbell MacLeod, of Lynchburg, a world war veteran, and Miss Margaretta Colston Carper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carper, of Boyce, Va., which took place Wednesday evening in the Protestant Episcopal Church at Boyce, the Rev. B. Duval Chambers, officiating.

Many prenuptial entertainments were given for the bride, and a large reception followed the ceremony. The maid of honor was Miss Louise Carper, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Misses Gertrude Daily, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Harriet Gates, Newport News, Va.; and Misses Norvell Payne, Lynchburg, Va.; Rodrick MacLeod, of Lynchburg, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man, and the groomsmen were William MacLeod, brother of the bridegroom; Lynchburg; Rodrick Beddow, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Birmingham, Ala.; and Paul Edmunds, Lynchburg. The ushers were William Vertner, Boyce, and Tom Terry, John Parkside and Henry McWane, Lynchburg.

Captain MacLeod has taken a prominent part in military affairs in Virginia for a number of years. He was an officer in the Second Virginia Infantry on the Mexican border and later commanded a company of the Twenty-ninth Division in France during the war with Germany. Captain MacLeod and his bride, who is closely connected with prominent Virginia families, will make their home in Lynchburg.

VIRGINIA EXCEEDS QUOTA FOR NEAR-EAST RELIEF

Leigh Street Baptist Church led the other organizations in Richmond in contributions to the Near East Relief fund, it was announced yesterday by Oliver J. Sands, state chairman.

Virginia exceeded her quota in this work for the first six months, which ended June 30. Mr. Sands declares, and indications are that the Old Dominion will again go over the top for the full year of 1921.

Among the major contributions for the aid of the suffering Armenians and Syrians in Richmond were: Leigh Street Baptist Church, $122.51; Dr. A. E. Farby, $100; Park Place M. E. Church Sunday School, $22.15; Third Presbyterian Church, $23.70; Miss Louise J. Nash, $10; Miss Florence Garnett, $20; and Miss Bessie McGarney, $25.

FATHER EARLS ADDRESSES GUILD OF SACRED HEART

Father Earls, author of "Melchior of Boston" and other novels, and professor of English at Boston College, lectured recently on the subject of general literature before the modern fiction circle of the cathedral literary guild of Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Father Earls is one of a number of distinguished literateurs who will address the literary guild during the year. He is the guest of his cousin, Dr. Edwin Shaughnessy, late of the American College in Rome and now pastor of the Catholic parish of North Richmond.

SELECT MRS. BOWMAN AS CONVENTION SPEAKER

Richmond Woman to Present "Banking" to National Assembly of Women's Clubs.

At a meeting of the executive board of the Virginia Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs held yesterday afternoon at the headquarters in the Richmond Hotel, it was decided that Mrs. J. K. Bowman should be the speaker from Virginia at the national convention to be held at Cleveland, Ohio, July 19 to 22. About six members of the board expect to attend the convention.

Mrs. Bowman will speak on "Banking." Representatives will attend the convention from practically every state in the United States and it is the intention of the committee in charge to arrange the program in such a way that almost every profession will be discussed. It is believed that this convention will greatly aid the Professional and Business Women's Clubs to solve many of their problems.

The part that Virginia is to take in the conference was also discussed yesterday by the members of the board. Mrs. Bowman said that this state will take a large part in the convention and delegates from several counties will probably attend. Members of the board are: Mrs. J. K. Bowman, Mrs. F. H. Crockett, Miss Mildred Black, Lynchburg; Mrs. E. R. Smith, Miss Anita Bell, Roanoke; Miss O. L. Hatcher, Miss Cally Ryland, Miss Cornelia Adair, Miss Carrie Southerland, Petersburg; Miss Mary West, Norfolk; Mrs. I. R. Maddox, and Miss Florence E. Minor.

BUYER FOR THALIMIER TO SAIL FOR FRANCE

Miss Tennie Mitchell, buyer of women's apparel for Thalimier Brothers, sailed on July 16 for Europe to buy fall and winter models for her firm. Miss Mitchell, who is well-known in the entire East and recognized throughout the States as a fashion expert, plans to spend much time in Paris, where she will study the latest models by world-famous French designers, purchasing many of them to be shown in Richmond in the early fall.

William Thalimier, Jr., member of the firm of Thalimier Brothers, has been in Europe for several months, establishing business connections in important business centers. Mr. Thalimier is expected home around the first of August.

ANY VIRGINIA GIRL MAY BECOME PAGEANT QUEEN

Nominations Close Some Time in August—Balloting Will Begin in September.

Queen of the Virginia Historical Pageant, which will be staged in Richmond next May, is open to any girl and woman in Virginia. Nominations of candidates may be made by any resident of the State, and nominations will not close until some time in August. Voting of coupons in bloc will not be permitted, except by organizations, and then each voting coupon must be signed by some member of the organization. These, in brief, were the rules laid down yesterday by Secretary W. B. Criddle, of the Virginia Historical Pageant Association for the conduct of the contest to select the "queen of the pageant."

Every city and county in the State is expected to make nominations for queen. Coupon votes will be run in the daily and weekly newspapers of the State, and the girl or woman receiving the majority of the votes will be declared the queen. Attendants to the queen will be selected from among those who make the best race for queen.

Balloting for queen of the pageant will begin early in September, and will continue through that month. Full details for the campaign will be mailed by Secretary Criddle to any one interested.

IRVIN COBB REFUNDS $150 TO RICHMOND KIWANIANS

Because he duplicated on lectures delivered in Richmond, Irvin S. Cobb, the humorist, has sent to the Richmond Kiwanis Club a check for $150 as a refund.

In March, 1920, Cobb delivered his lecture "Made in America," to an appreciative Richmond audience under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club. Last year he was engaged to deliver a lecture on "Home Folks," and there was disappointment when it developed the subject matter was the same as "Made in America." The Kiwanians demanded a refund, and the check brings the dispute to an end. The money was given by the Kiwanians to the Crippled Children's Hospital.

DR. CHANDLER IS NAMED N. E. A. VICE-PRESIDENT

Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, president of William and Mary College and former superintendent of the Richmond public schools, was elected vice-president of the National Education Association, according to information received here yesterday. The election took place at the fifty-ninth annual convention of the organization, held in Des Moines, Ia.

Charles O. Williams, county superintendent of Memphis, Tenn., was unanimously elected president of the association.
